

Applicant agrees to the following terms and conditions:

- In accordance with applicable European privacy legislation, NL-Lab will never accept or document personal details relating to research material. NL-Lab only accepts anonymized research material.
 - Integrity, anonymity and traceability of coding is entirely the responsibility of the applicant.
 - Sample coding is determined by applicant.
 - Applicant only uses the application form provided by NL-Lab.
- NL-Lab has no contracts with insurers. NL-Lab does not receive any reimbursements from insurers.
- The analysis results provided by NL-Lab are solely for scientific research purposes.
- The applicant confirms that the collection of human research material was carried out by a legally authorized official (to the extent applicable to the collection) and took place on a voluntary basis.
- No rights (legal or otherwise) can be attached to the analysis results of NL-Lab.
- All responsibility for actions based on the analysis results provided by NL-Lab are the responsibility of the applicant.
- NL-Lab communicates analysis results only with the applicant. NL-Lab does not communicate with other parties, including patients.
- NL-LAB only accepts research material for analysis, sent in sound and appropriate packaging systems.
 - Applicant will only use the packaging material provided by NL-Lab.
 - This may not be deviated from without the express permission of NL-Lab.
- NL-Lab stores research material for at least 1 month, after which it is destroyed in accordance with applicable regulations.
- NL-Lab is subject to VAT. 21% VAT is charged on its services.

Applicant agrees that NL-Lab collects and processes his/her personal data for the following purposes:

- To be able to call or email you if this is necessary to provide our services;
- To be able to send you the requested products/results and to complete the ordering process;
- For invoicing and further administrative purposes regarding the requested and performed services;
- To send results, newsletters and other relevant information about our services.

An application form for the performance of services is only valid if the applicant is registered with NL-Lab using the online registration form.

The conditions stated on this registration form and as published on our website: nl-lab.nl apply to all our services.